Appeal For Aid

Pastor of Free Methodist Church Ask Contributions For Poor Of City.

Having had two years experience in Alexandria as a pastor, in visiting among the sick and suffering. I find a certain class of worthy people that need financial aid. For instance there are some families where the only bread winner of the home has been overtaken by disease and not able to earn a cent for weeks and months at a time; You can readily see how important it is that they receive financial assistance, in cases where there is no income from any other source.

We as church members have undertaken to care for all of this class who are members of our church, but we meet with so many that are not members of our church that need help, that the need is more than we can supply without outside assistance.

We are sure that there are a number of citizens of Alexandria who would be glad to help such worthy cases, if they had the opportunity, and if they could be assured that the money given would be wisely distributed to those who were the most worthy, who were in need, regardless of name or faith. This we are willing to undertake by God's help and your cooperation.

We propose to keep an account of all receipts and disbursements and this record will be subject to the examination of any contributor or person otherwise interested. If there are any who wish to inquire into any particular case and wish to make a gift to that case, they will be given the privilege of making a check payable to that particular person, and a receipt will be secured from the one to whom the check is given, for the same.

We thank you in advance for your kind consideration in this matter. Please send all communications to L. H. Kelley, pastor of the Free Methodist Church, 507 North Columbus street.

IN MEMORIAM.

CROCKETT—In memory of Earl Crockett, who departed this life 6 months ago today.

Dear is the grave in which he is laid,
Sweet is the memory which will never fade,
Part of my life is buried deep,
Under the sod where my son sleeps.
God called him home, it was his will
But in my heart, I miss him still.
His loving mother and father
Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Crockett.

How sadly we awaited the hours
That measured the sorrowful months
Since we laid 'neath a mantle of flowers,
Our Brother we loved so dead.
Our thoughts are all ways wondering.
To the grave so far away,
Where our dear brother is lying
In his peaceful lonely grave
Tis' sweet to be remembered
And sweeter still to find
Though 6 long months you been away
You still are kept in mind.
His Loving Brother and Sisters

COX CONFERS WITH CAMPAIGN LEADERS

White, Harrison and Moore at Dayton to Arrange Program

GOV. TALKS TO WOMEN

Nominee Forcefully Enumerates Reasons Why New Voters Should Support It

Dayton, O., Oct. 5.—Chairman Geo. White, of the Democratic National Committee; Senator Pat Harrison, chairman of the speakers' bureau, and E. H. Moore, Governor Cox's preconvention manager, arrived yesterday afternoon from New York for a conference with the Presidential candidate. General campaign plans, and especially the Governor's speaking itinerary, will be considered late today at the Governor's home, "Trailsend."

At home from a campaign tour that took him more than 11,000 miles and into every state west of the Mississippi River, except three, Governor Cox, though supposed to rest for two days before going into Kentucky and Tennessee, today continued his plea for adoption of the League of Nations, the paramount issue of the campaign.

In an address to a body of women yesterday the Governor went into considerable detail why women should support the League cause, asserting that throughout the years they have been "the leaders of progress in the world," and declaring that wrath of the women who were made to suffer in the war will pursue Franz Joseph, William Hohenzollern and Nicholas Romanoff "through all eternity."

Though asserting that the monetary cost of the war, direct and indirect, was $380,000,000,000, it was the women, Governor Cox declared, who know what the war really cost, "for they paid the price in personal suffering to provide the rulers of the earth with 10,000,000 men which were thrown into the gauges of battle to placate the anger of the gods of war."

The League, Governor Cox said, not only will prevent war, which he asserted is its primary purpose, but also will promote progress and will "set up, or itself become a clearing house for international justice and social service."

"Those who want to keep on dreaming of a 'new heaven and a new earth' can perhaps afford to stay out of the League," the candidate said: "but those who really want to make their dreams come true and make this world a fit habitat for the human spirit will want to join the League without delay."

The Governor detailed the following social service and justice program which, he asserted, member nations of the League will endeavor to carry out:

"Try to secure and maintain fair and humane conditions of labor for men, women and children, thus lifting the standard of living everywhere.

"Try to secure just treatment of the native inhabitants of territories under their control.

"Try to secure and maintain freedom of communication and of transit, and equitable treatment for the commerce of members of the League.

"Labor together in the effort to control, and, ultimately, eradicate disease.

"Set up commissions for the prevention of the illicit traffic in arms, in dangerous drugs and in women for immoral purposes."

Asserting that the issue "is not fundamentally a legal or diplomatic one," but a morale one, and declaring it fortunate that women for the first time hold the balance of power and the deciding vote, the Governor said he has no doubt in his mind how the women's vote will be cast. He continued:

"The women of America will vote to keep our pledge to 81,000 heroes whose blood has crimsoned the poppies of Flanders' field. They will vote for the limitation of armaments, the arbitration of disputes, the publication of secret treaties, the amelioration of distress and the elevation of labor conditions to higher standards. In a word, they will vote for a League which will convert Christian idealism into the statutes of sound statesmanship and bring to the sons of men a peace that shall cover the earth as the waters cover the sea."

SCHIFF ESTATE FORTY MILLION

New York, Oct. 5.—One million three hundred and fifty thousand dollars are left in charitable bequests to many public institutions by the will of the late Jacob Schiff, multi-millionaire and Jewish philanthropist, filed yesterday in the surrogates office.

The banker's estate, after the bequests are made, is divided equally between Mortimer Schiff and Frieda Warburg, the testator's son and daughter. The estate is estimated to be worth $40,000,000.

Among the charitable bequests are: Harvard College, $25,000; Israelisch Weistadt, Frankfort-on-the-Main Germany, $25,000; Tuskegee Normal Institute, $10,000, and the federation for the support of Jewish philanthropic societies of the City of New York, $500,000, and the Hebrew Union College, Cincinnati, $100,000.

Columbian Players

Personnel of Organization Formerly Members of K. of C. Minstrel Troupe

The members of the Knights of Columbus Minstrel Troupe have been re-organized and have adopted as their name, The Columbian Players. At a meeting held last Friday evening the new organization was launched, and will be composed of the same personnel that formed the membership of the minstrel troupe. The new organization, while in membership the same as the minstrel troupe, will embark upon a new line of activity, it being the plan of the Columbian Players to present a Musical Comedy during the winter season. The cast of the Columbian Players will consist solely of members of Fitzgerald Council, Knights of Columbus, assisted by a number of young ladies of St. Mary's Parish.

During the summer season the members of the K. of C. Minstrels, which have now been suceeded by the Columbian Players, gave many successful performances here in and in other parts of Virginia and at Walter Reed Hospital, Washington. With an organization now perfected, and with the experience of the past season, it is pointed out that the new society will achieve even greater success in their endeavors than that which crowned their efforts during the past three months.

The following officers have been elected for the season 1920-1921: C. M. Horgan, director; Norris N. Roland, vice director; M. J. McFarland treasurer; Joseph L. Lash, stage manager George A. Jaeger, musical director; Miss Ella Hill, assistant musical director; Robert Whitestone, electrician; C. R. Hellmuth, transportation and advance agent. Mrs. J. Ross, secretary; Miss Lena Moore, special transportation agent; Francis H. Fannon, publicity and advertising manager.

Writ Granted

Appeals Court to Hear Case of Miss Garrett Appealed by Railway Company

From the Circuit Court for Fairfax County comes an interesting and unusual case on appeal. The Supreme Court has allowed a writ of error and supersedeas in the litigation. It appears that about a year ago Julia May Garrett, employed by the Southern Railway Company in Washington, boarded a train in that city for her home. The train sped by her station, and she asked the conductor to stop the same after it had gone perhaps three-quarter of a mile beyond her destination. She was engaged in talking to a soldier on the train, and when she alighted he also got off the train and followed her. She says that she was attacked by this man and that another man, a tramp, when he came to her rescue, also assaulted her. She brought suit against the company for damages, assigning that because of being carried beyond her station the company made it possible for her being subjected to brutal treatment. The record in the case is voluminous and recites details of the entire affair. Miss Garrett was awarded $2,500 damages, and from this the company is appealing.

Florian Zelenko Alleged to Have Gloated Over Wall Street Disaster —Left Home Shortly Before Blast

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Oct. 5.—Disaster is threatened to millions of dollars' worth of property owned by the Pennsylvania Coal Company and Hillside Coal and Iron Company by a plan which the leaders of 8,000 strikers will use to force the companies to a showdown.

The grievance committee of the miners met in Pittston today and passed a resolution calling out all pump runners and firemen.

If these workers answer the call the steam will be shut off from the engines and there will be no one to man the pumps. Therefore, thousands of gallons of water will flood the mines and probably put them out of commission for years. It will not be known until tomorrow whether the pump runners and firemen will respond.

There are those who would stay at work, but fear of having their homes dynamited will prompt them to think seriously before failing to obey the call of the strike leaders.

The formal strike vote was taken Saturday night. Today 8,000 men from Plains to Old Forge answered and tied up nearly every colliery of the Pennsylvania Coal Company. A resolution also was passed, which provides that the executive committee shall communicate with the international president of the United Mine Workers, John T. Lewis, asking him to send a man to the Pittston district for the purpose of investigating working conditions.

It is declared by strike leaders that many miners are not allowed to join the union locals in Pittston because the administration leaders in charge believe the new members will oust them. Another resolution passed unanimously provides that "the miners will not enter into conference with Judge Tracey, chief of the State Bureau of Arbitration and Mediation, if he should come into this section." The miners are incensed because Judge Tracey recently refused to allow a large number of a certain nationality to enter a meeting where a vote for return to work was to be taken.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Oct. 5.—Reconsideration of the anthracite mine demands for a wage increase equal to that recently granted the bituminous miners will be asked of Secretary of Labor Wilson by the policy committee of the hard-coal workers at Canton, Ohio tomorrow. This announcement was made by Chairman Thomas Kennedy, of the committee, who stopped here last night with members of the committee en route to the Ohio city to confer with the Secretary of Labor.

Chairman Kennedy said that the committee will place before Secretary Wilson "ample evidence of the injustice and inequality of the award of the United States Anthracite Coal Commission," and ask that he take steps to bring about a reopening of the wage negotiations.

A wage increase of approximately 13 per cent., in addition to the 18 per cent. granted the contract miners by the Government commission, will be asked, according to Mr. Kennedy an additional increase of approximately 10 per cent. will be asked for the day laborers and other mine-workers.

The matter of alleged discrimination against the monthly workers who quit work in sympathy with the "vacationist" miners will also be considered at the conference with the

WATTERSON SLOGAN, "COX IS UNBEATABLE"

New York, Oct. 5.—Henry Watterson, who is spending a few days in New York City, said yesterday he believed Gov. Cox the unbeatable.

"Write it, 'Cox the unbeatable,'" said the veteran newspaperman.

"He is a journalist and that means a deal. The lawyer is a controversialist, a logician, a master of doctrines, theories, equities. The doctor is a healer, and more or less a specialist. The journalist is an all-round man of affairs; that is what we require as a President of the United States."

"Cox has shown himself ever a practical man, a man of sense and judgment.

"Now comes the chance for the Democrats to get together to wipe out the old scores."

Store BBeautifully Decorated.

The first of the season's formal Autumn Openings is now under way at the Swan Brothers store and the interior and window decorations at the store are attracting considerable attention from the shopping public of the city.

The Big Department Store is showing a wonderful collection of the new things for fall and winter for men, women and children and it should be well worth any person's time to inspect the interior of the store tomorrow, the final day of the opening.

The decorations were done by A. K. Baker, display man at the Swan store and a portion of his materials were gathered on a trip into the country district. Mr. Baker deserves considerable credit for the beauty of his window displays and for the interior decorations, that beautifully carry out the spirit of the season.

Thousands To Reunion

United Confederate Veterans Gather at Houston

Houston, Texas, Oct. 5.—Special trains augmented the usual regular train service into this city today and brought thousands of Confederate veterans to attend the reunion of the United Confederate Veterans. Their numbers were swelled by those coming for the reunions of the Southern Confederate Memorial Association an the Sons of Confederate Veterans, to be held jointly with that of the old soldiers who fought for the south.

The first special train today brought the Washington, D. C., and part of the Virginia delegations.

Announcement last night of General K. M. VanZandt, of Forth Worth, Texas, that he would again be a candidate for re-election as commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans organization, was said by other officers to eliminate probability of a fight for any of the major offices.

The greatest contest expected, they said, would be on the selection of the next reunion city, Savannah, Ga., and Little Rock, Ark., having both sent notice that they would be candidates for the next meeting. Louisville, Ky., is said to be preparing to enter the lists for the next reunion also.

AN APPRECIATION

The Westminster Bible Class was honored Sunday with an address by Mr. Glenn L. Justice. His subject "The All Round Man" was appreciated by all present. Facts are the impressive feature of any address and the speaker used them by discussing his subject from many angles and displaying to those present practical facts in clear, matter of fact language. He made the members feel that after such upheavels of morals and customs of the nations of the world men need now as never before be in every sense of the word, mentally, morally and physically "All Round Men."

Mr. Justice represents Alexandria's broadminded, thoughtful business men. To increase this percentage of useful, thoughtful citizens is the aim of the Westminster Bible Class. The class take this opportunity to thank him for his straight from the shoulder talk and hope to be honored by another such address.

COAL STRIKERS THREATEN RUIN

Pump Runners and Firemen Are Ordered Out

WOULD FLOOD MINES

8000 Men Already Out—Anthracite Men to Ask Reconsideration of Wage Demands

Pittsburgh, Pa., Oct. 5.—Florian Zelenko, who was arrested here last night with a quantity of dynamite percussion caps and fuse in his suitcase, was sent back to the city prison today from the local office of the Department of Justice, where he was closely questioned during the afternoon regarding his movements for the past several months.

The questioning, Department of Justice agents said, would be resumed today.

Meantime government agents in Logan county, W. Va., and in Cincinnati, Ohio, were tracing Zelenko's movements in order to see whether they agree with the story he told during the afternoon. Zelenko, who was reported by Leon Konkel to the police as having referred to the Wall street explosion of September 16, while they were riding from Cincinnati to Pittsburgh yesterday, told the Federal agents that on the day of the explosion he was working as a tailor for the Wilmer Clothing Company, at Brooklyn street and Rosedale avenue, Brooklyn.

Soon afterward, Zelenko told the agents, he obtained employment with the Island Creek Coal Company, at Whitman, Logan county, W. Va., and left New York September 24, for that place. After working a few days as a coal loader, he gave up the job and went to Cincinnati; from there he came to Pittsburgh. At Whitman, he said he had bought the explosives for use in his work as other miners did, and, having it on hand when he quit, he took it with him. Efforts were made by the government to get in touch with the Island Creek Coal Company at Whitman this afternoon as Zelenko had in his pocket a baggage check numbered "506." Such checks are given to miners in many of the coal fields of West Virginia.

The Federal agents also contended to confirm a statement by Zelenko that during the war he had been employed as a laborer on the power work at Nitro, a suburb of Charleston, W. Va., where the government began the erection of an explosive plant. This work Zelenko told the agents, he had abandoned because it was too hard for him, and then returned to New York.

Zelenko is a Pole, who, according to his story came to this country in 1914.

The dynamite found in Zelenko's suitcase was turned over to the Pittsburgh station of the bureau of mines, where engineers pronounced it as "No 2," the kind ordinarily used in mining operations."

DIVES TO DEATH IN SEA

Sick Woman Makes Detailed Preparation for Tragic Suicide.

Atlantic City Oct. 5—Leaving several notes to friends and relatives disposing of personal effects and arranging for the disposal of her body Mrs. Rebecca Atkinson, 35 years old, of Long Branch, made the bedroom tidied up her room, at No. 104 South Maryland avenue, walked to the end of the Garden Pier, removed her coat and left her handbag with it, and plunged 100 feet into the ocean to her death about 7 o'clock yesterday morning. Her body was found floating not far from the shore two hours later, and investigation revealed the notes and the preparation for suicide. A nervous breakdown is blamed for the woman's action.

THE PRESIDENT'S APPEAL.

No one exceeds the President in lucidity and cogency of statement. He manages to argue a case in the mere form of stating it. He was never more simple and convincing than in his appeal to the American people to vote for the League of Nations, for the only means of preserving the world's peace, and for the completion of the work we entered upon when we took part in the World War.

Every particle of the opposition to the League is partisan, manufactured for political effect after the Congressional election two years ago raised hopes among the Republican politicians of defeating the President. Before that everybody took it for granted that an association of nations to prevent a repetition of the crime of 1914 must follow the war and would justify our participation in it. Tht two Republican ex-Presidents were conspicuously and actively engaged in promoting such a combination of nations, with power to coerce a recalcitrant nation and to prevent the beginning of the war. Nobody doubted that that was what we went into the war for. All the opposition to the League has been worked up for political purposes since the armistice.

The President rightly says there is one paramount question before the American people: "Do you want your country's honor vindicated and the treaty of Versailles ratified? Do you in particular approve of the League of Nations as organized and empowered in that treaty? And do you wish to see the United States play its responsible part in it?"

There can be no other League. The suggestion of Senator Harding that he would negotiate a new treaty and a different association of nations is childish. A separate treaty of course we can have, but there cannot be another League. The 40 nations that have joined the existing League are not going to join our little side-show. There are no availible members for it except soviet Russia and Mexico. We do not believe that any American would like to see us in that company, and we do not believe that those two would join us in any sort of a league. For us it is the covenant writen in Paris or it is isolation from all other nations, the one civilized power in the world that will not try to prevent war. Nothing could be more mortifying, nothing could be more disgraceful, than such a course.

At the peace conference the United States was looked up to by all the world. And now, as the result of two years of bitter, malignant, partisan fighting against the President, observers tell us that Europe is paying little attention to us and cares little what we do. But that only means that Europe is prepared to go on after we have "welched." Thoughtful Europeans say frankly that the League of Nations cannot do anything like the work it was created for unless we join it.

There is nothing in the covenant, the President tells us, "which in the least interferes with or impairs the right of Congress to declare war or not declare war according to its own independent judgment, as our Constitution provides." So says William Howard Taft, Republican ex-President, and so say all the nations that have joined the League, for every one of them cares as much for its independence as we care for ours, and if the covenant would impair our sovereignty it would not less impair the sovereignty of England, France, Italy, Japan and the rest.

ODDS AGAINST COX LOWER

Harding Supporters Offer 4 to 1 Instead of 5 to 1.

New York, Oct. 5.—Odds on Senator Harding to be elected President dropped somewhat in the Wall street betting yesterday receding from 5 to 1 to 4 to 1. The change in sentiment is said to be due to President Wilson's statement yesterday on the league of nations.

A bet of 8 to 5 that Harding would carry Ohio by 30,000 was offered today.

Arnstein Trial in New York Put Off Despite Plea

New York, Oct. 5.—Jules W. (Nicky) Arnstein appeared for trial yesterday before Judge Mulqueen on three charges of receiving stolen bonds and grand larceny, but at request of the district attorney the case was postponed until October 25.

Arnstein, who is alleged to have vanished with thousands of dollars in bonds and to have outwitted the police in a game of hide and seek until he got ready to surrender, demanded an immediate trial, but Judge Mulqueen held the district attorney's request was reasonable. Meanwhile Arnstein is confined in Ludlow Street Jail for contempt of court as he has refused to answer questions in bankruptcy proceedings, on the ground that he might incriminate himself.

Vegetable Colors Make Girls Look Good Enough to Eat

New York, Oct. 5.—At almost any garden party this fall you may see garments in honey dew, tangerine, tomato and pimento red, piped with a delicious bit of pistache or green.

If one is conservative and not inclined to the festive colors announced by the association, she may content herself with resolute blue or turquoise porcelain or the reliable old navy blue.

New York Votes $200,000 To Fight Red Activities

New York, Oct. 5.—A police contingency fund of $200,000 was voted yesterday by the finance and budget committee of the board of estimate for the purpose of prosecuting investigations into radical activities. The fund was voted after Police Commissioner Enright told the committee that activities of radicals have become a serious menace to New York and the nation.

New York, Oct. 5.—Two Brooklyn Boy scouts arrived here yesterday from San Francisco, completing a round trip made partly on foot and by picking up rides in automobiles and wagons. The boys, J. F. Budd and A. G. Greiner, began their journey July 31, arrived at San Francisco August 28, and started back three days later.

Society Girl Killed By Robbers

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 5.—Police yesterday ascribed robbery as the motive that prompted the fatal shooting of Miss Florence Barton, society girl, early Sunday. She was riding on a lonely road with her fiance, Howard R. Winter. Robbery is believed to be the motive because so many persons have been held up by autoists lately in the district where Miss Barton was killed.

Man Commits Suicide in Theatre.

[redacted], Md., Oct. 5.—Harry Lander, as Walter Bunn, the man who can wiggle his ears," had stepped out on the Palace Theatre stage last night to open the second act of "Vamping the Tramp," when a shot rang out.

"Another Wall street explosion!" drawled Lander. The audience laughed.

Up on the stairs to the balcony a man was dying with a self-inflicted pistol wound through the heart. Even when policemen in uniform came up and carried him out on a stretcher no flurry of excitement stirred the crowded theatre.

The man died on the operating table at University Hospital. He was Wazik Czradich, a Russian who lived in Fourteenth street, Highlandtown. In his pocket was a letter addressed to Walter Korzieniewsky, 1235 South Decker avenue. Korzieniewsky went to the morgue and identified Czradich, who, he said, was an old friend.

All of the audience but those in the balcony thought, apparently, that the pistol shot was part of the show.

Simple Funeral For Crane.

Dalton, Mass., Oct. 5.—A simplicity in keeping with his way of life marked the funeral yesterday of W. Murray Crane, former United States Senator, ex-Governor of Massachusetts and millionaire manufacturer. The body, in a flower-banked casket, lay in the hall of the great house on the hill while neighbors, mill workers, leaders of industry, politics and finance, and other frineds streamed past for a farewell view. There followed a service of Scripture reading.

COAL STRIKERS THREATEN RUIN

Secretary of Labor. More than 50 specific cases will be presented by Christ J. Golden, president of District No. 7, he said.

"Unless the coal companies reinstate the men who have been discharged for quitting work in sympathy with the miners, another walkout in District 7 appears inevitable, said Mr. Golden. "We intend to call a tridistrict convention of the anthracite mineworkers for the consideration of taking necessary action, unless the situation is cleared at once."

VIRGINIA NEWS

Richmond—Hill Montague has been mentioned by friends as a possible candidate for the lieutenant-governorship, subject to the Democratic primary next year. Mr. Montague admitted yesterday that he was considering the matter. Kenneth N. Gilpin, of Clarke County, and Senator J. E. West, of Suffolk, already announced candidates for the place.

Lynchburg—Henry P. Adams, city treasurer here since 1098, announced yesterday he will tender his resignation to the Corporation Court, effective January 1. It is expected George M. Bell, deputy treasurer, will be appointed for the unexpired term, which ends December 31, 1921.

Winchester—Miss Margaret Reardon, of Keeble, this city private secretary to Representative T. W. Harrison of the Seventh Virginia district for the last four years, has resigned to become one of the official stenographers in the White House. Judge Harrison has appointed Miss Marguerite Lyons, formerly of Madison county, Virginia, to be his secretary.

Lynchburg—Police here found alongside the old line of the Southern Railway a baby girl, several hours old, which had been abandoned apparently, just after birth. A hundred yards away were evidences of the fact that the child was born along the railway. The mother seems to have covered the babe with a small cloth and left it in a pouring rain. A man passing on the track saw the baby, walked three miles to Main Street and reported the matter. Police Sergeant Smith and Patrolman Paris hurried to the scene in the police patrol and then rushed the baby to the city hospital, where the entire nursing staff received is as a special charge and will, they say, adopt it. The child is said to weigh at least twelve pounds. The police have no clue as to the mother of the infant.

Pulaski—A. J. Hailey was fatally injured yesterday afternoon by a premature explosion of a dynamite hole at the Pulaski Stone Company quarries. He was manager of the company and was tamping a loaded hole when, it is presumed, he struck a spark. He died soon after the accident. He leaves a widow and several small children.

Idaho, with a population of 431,826, increased 106,232, or 32.6 per cent.

CALL MOVEMENT "A BLUFF"

British Ship Owners Discount General Coal Strike Threat.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 5.—British steamship owners regard the threat of a general coal strike in England as "a bluff," according to a report to the Department of Commerce yesterday from Consul General W. S. Stanley at London.

Quoting British banking interests, the Consul said: "While endeavoring to take every precaution in regard to the possibility of delay and financial loss in the event of a coal strike, ship-owners in general seem to be disposed to look upon the threatened crisis as being in the nature of a bluff."

Preference is being given to employment which will take steamers away from the United Kingdom for an appreciable time. Mr. Stanley said and should the coal crisis blow over, a shortage of tonnage in English ports would result.

VICIOUS MOONSHINE THREAT

Norristown, Pa., Oct. 5.—Mrs. Harry Rutter, Plymouth, received a letter threatening that if she didn't keep her mouth shut about knowledge she is supposed to have about moonshine manufacture she can expect to have her husband or mother killed, her child kidnapped on its way from school or her house bombed. Rutter, who works in Philadelphia, is at home protecting his family, and Norristown police have turned the letter over to the Federal authorities.

New York, Oct. 5.—Six bandits entered the New Central Cafe here yesterday and held up sixty patrons, taking from them valuables valued at $6,000.

The robbers fled into the subway and running down the tracks, eluded the lone policeman who chased them. The cafe is on the second floor and was crowded with people drinking coffee and playing cards.

PRISON BOARD ABOLISHES

Richmond Va., Oct. 5.—By order of the board of directors of the Virginia State Penitentiary stripes in convict's clothing will be abolished when the inmates of the State Farm, the penitentary and the convicts on the roads are issued their fall clothing. The new suits which will be handed out will be of "prison" brown, neat and attractive to the eye. Such decision has been approved by the board in connection with its policy of reforming the prison system of the Commonwealth, and as soon as the striped matrial now on hand is used up, stripes will be discarded entirely.

Members of the board came to the conclusion that it is desirable to eliminate the stripe through a close study of the situation in other States. It was found that Massachusetts formed such raiment seventy-six years ago and that it has not been in use in New York for twenty-six years. Virginia is now but one of six States not to have abolished stripes.

Taxes Shrink in Price Cuts.

Officials of the Treasury Department believe that revenue from the excess profits tax will shrink one-half during the ensuing year if prices continue to decline. It had been estimated that the returns from income profits and excess profits taxes would amount to $3,750,000,000. From present indications government revenues from this source will not amount to more than $1,875,000,000.

It is becoming increasingly evident, officials assert, that expenditures cannot be materially reduced next year. Means of overcoming the deficiency is puzzling them.

An increase in postage rates undoubtedly will be suggested but, will of course provide only a fraction of the deficit.

Wanderer To Be Tried For Wife Murder Today.

Chicago Oct. 4.—Carl Wanderer, former lieutenant, confessed slayer of his wife and of a tramp he hired to assist him in a mimic holdup, has decided to make a fight for life.

Wandrer faces trial today for murder. On July 15— less than a month after the murder—Wanderer said:

"I'll plead guilty and I'll tell the judge I want to be hanged—I'll ask him to have me hanged as soon as possible."

After 16 hours of "third degrees" in which no sleep had been permitted him, Wanderer confessed he killed his wife and the ragged stranger.

Tomorrow, if the hints Wanderer has dropped to the guards have not been misinterpreted, the jury trying him will hear the story of a man brokenhearted by the death of his wife, hounded and tortured until he told what was wanted that he might be permitted a moment's sleep and retain his sanity.

Hoop-la

Think of it; new baked bread, cakes, cookies and pies. You can just smell them. Think of the times you robbed the cookie jar. Think what it means to know that you have a range that will give you a positive one-third to one-half fuel saving.

Cole's Sanitary Down Draft Range
It is equipped with COLE'S

of combustion. This gives you a saving of one-third to one-half on your fuel. Burns the fuel gases that other makes of ranges waste and carries a broad sheet of clean flame under all six lids and entirely around the oven. This means even cooking and baking results. Even steady heat—not a flashy wasteful one. Holds fire over night. Gas tight—rust proof vitreous enameled linings. This range will outlast any range on the market and will pay for itself in fuel saved. Furnished in blue or gray enamel or plain black. A beauty from start to finish.
